The Philadelphia School of Dance Arts

All classes are being conducted in the West Philadelphia (Phadanco), and in the West Oak Lane, (Mt. Airy area) studios.

Pre-Dance/Children’s Dance (ages 4-6)
An introduction to dance, its techniques, and discipline. An awareness of movement is developed with the limbering of acrobatics, rhythmical movement to song, and elements of Ballet.

Classical Ballet (Ages 7+)
Ballet for the beginning child up to advanced levels. Basic Cecchetti methods used along with R.A.D. and Russian techniques. Individual attention and thoroughness stressed. A very disciplined form of dance study that is the basis for all dance. It is highly recommended as a starting point of dance education.

Pointe (Toe Dancing)
A form for the advancing ballet student. The technique of dancing ‘Sur Le Pointe’ ... never before the age of 10 years, and only as the physical capabilities develop.

Modern Jazz (Ages 6+)
Authentic jazz forms and contemporary dance, incorporated with Afro-Caribbean rhythms and modern dance. Freestyle and theatrical innovations stressed.

Modern Dance ( Ages 8+)
Modern dance is made up of many different dance techniques (Graham, Horton, Limon, etc.) all of which are designed to develop in the dancer’s body a specific way of moving based on that technique's principles.

Acrobatics/Gymnastics (Ages 5+)
The art of tumbling, gymnastics, contortions, etc., stressing agility and grace.

Tap (Ages 7+)
Rhythmic tap based on the modern flair technique of Henry Letang. Also, group precision emphasized.

Classes also offered in Hip-Hop (Children to Teen)
Classes in authentic Hip Hop with history and vocabulary
